

Environmental Conflict Resolution and Social Participation in Cities: Considering Public Sector Interface

Saleem H Ali

Member of the GEF, Scientific and Technical Advisory Panel

www.saleemhali.net

Twitter: @saleem_ali

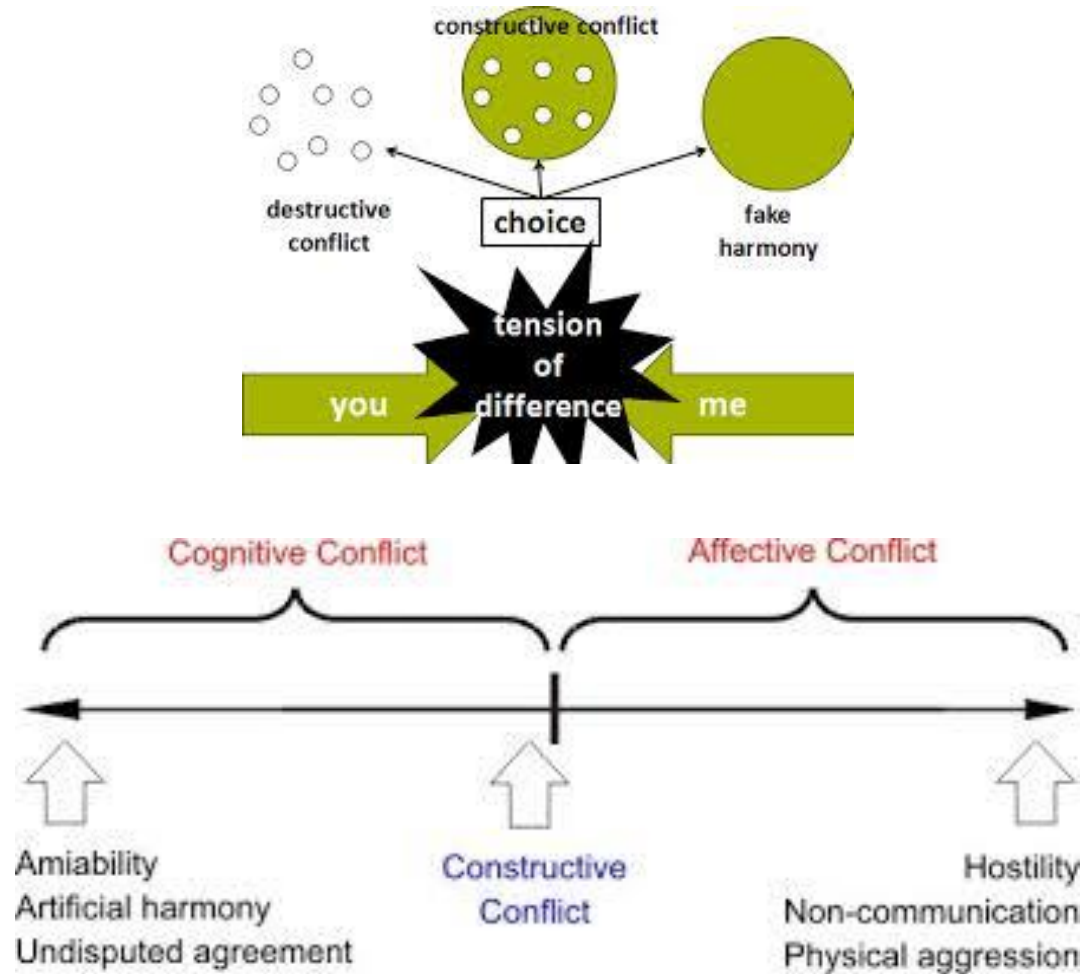

Conflicts and Power

- Distributive versus Integrative Conflicts
 - Zero Sum Games and non-Zero sum games
- What are the Sources of Power in Conflict ? Power of skill and knowledge
 - Power of a good relationship
 - Power of a good alternative to negotiating
 - Power of an elegant solution
 - Power of legitimacy
 - Power of commitment

FISHER, ROGER. 1983. "Negotiating Power: Getting and Using Influence." American Behavioral Scientist 27 (2): 149–66.

- Motivation: Conflict Management or Conflict Resolution

Conflicts can be Socially Constructive

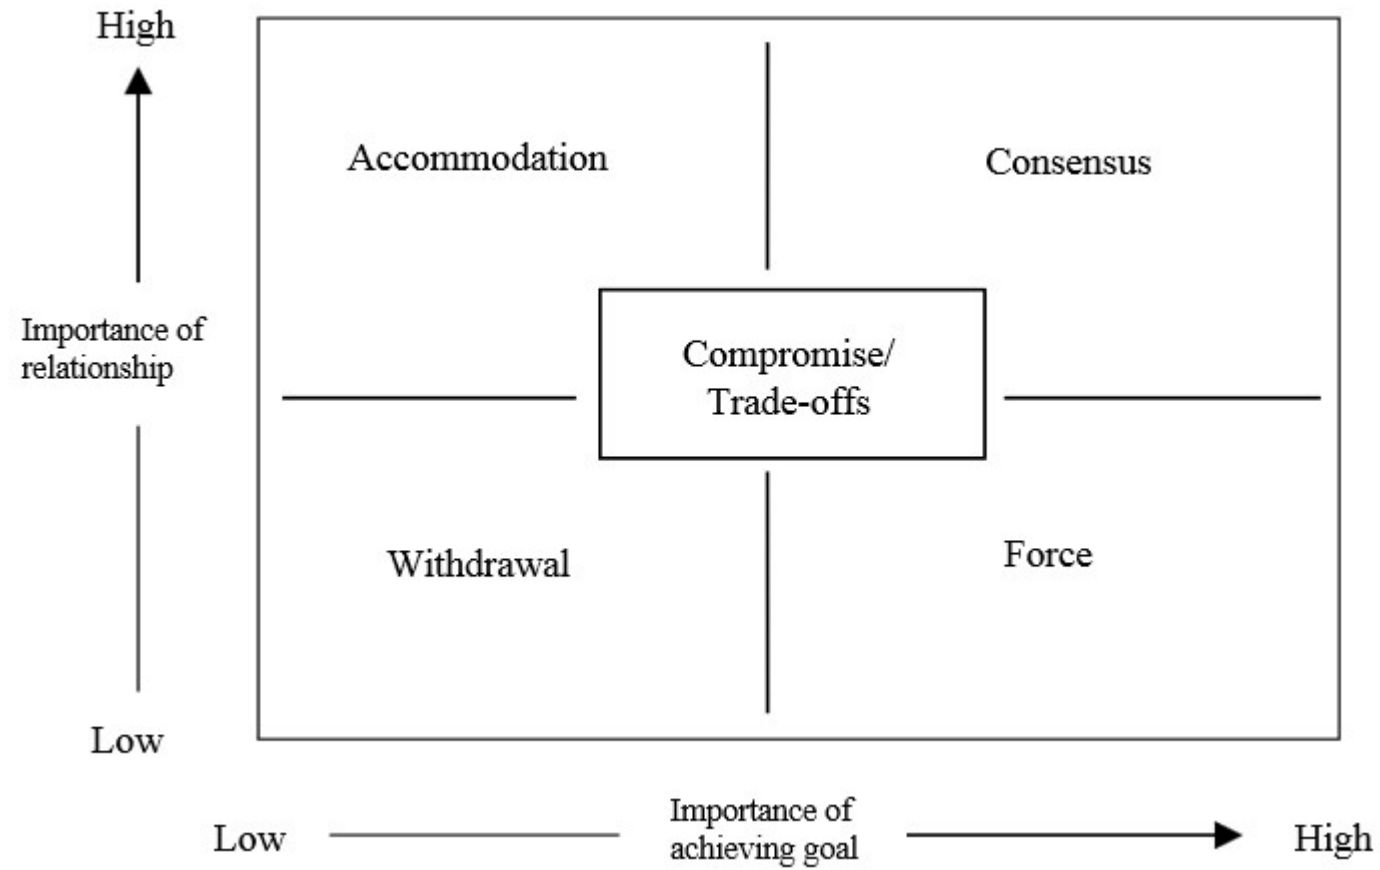

Credit: Social Gravity:
Harnessing the Natural
Laws of Relationships
Authored by Joe
Gerstandt, Jason Lauritsen

Peace-building and Conflict

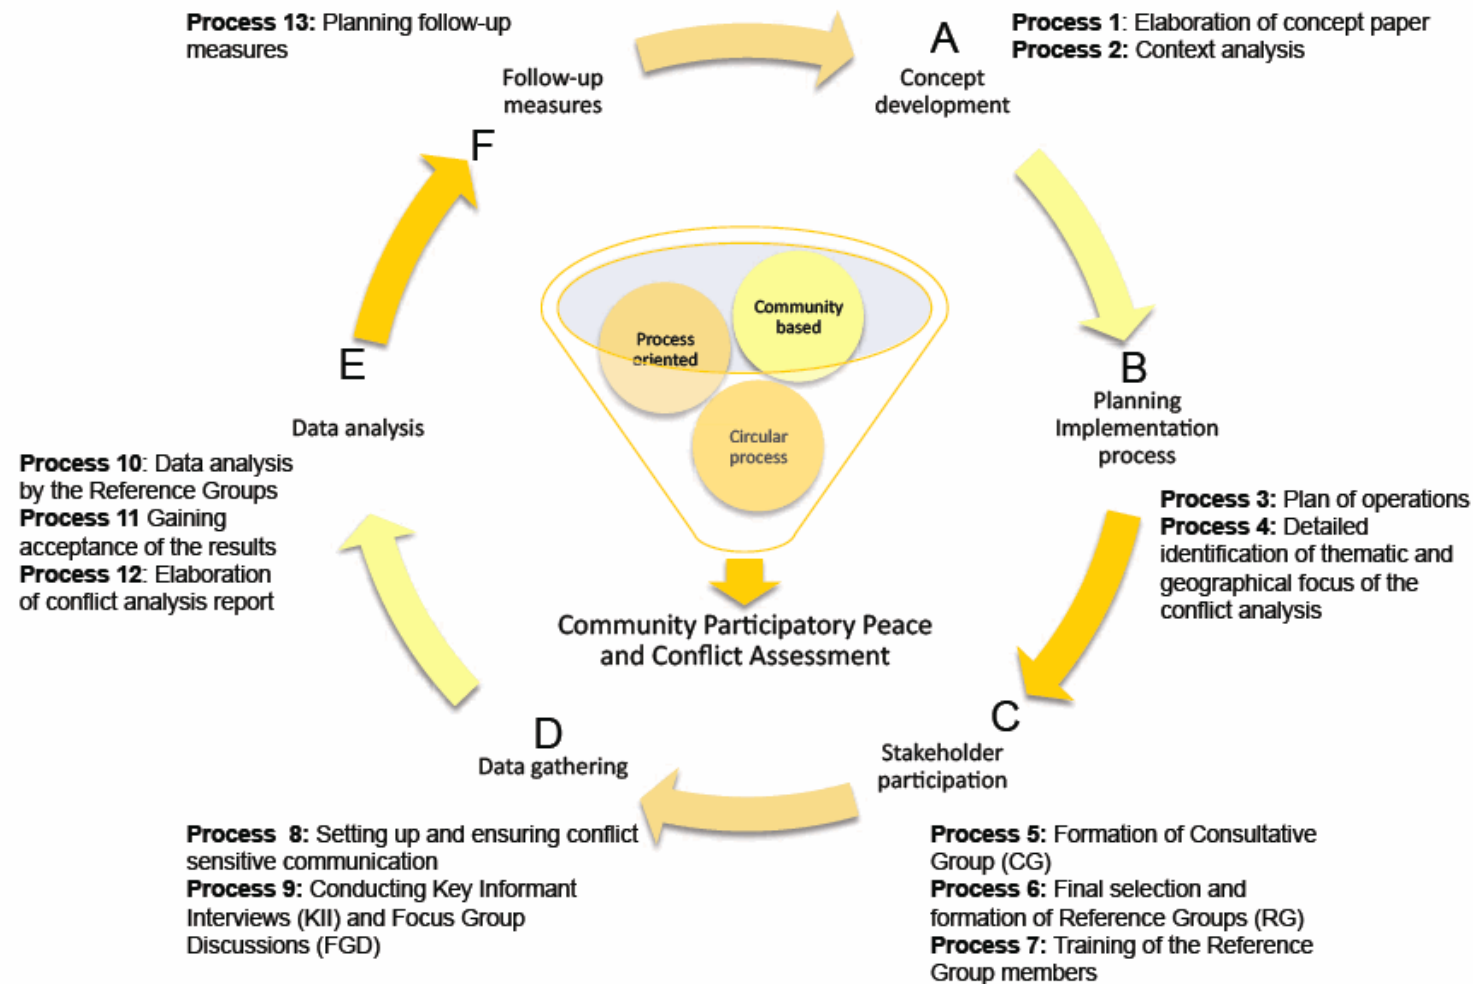

Credit: Sarah Howell, Winston Salem NC

Credit: Overseas Development Institute

TABLE 4 STAKEHOLDER PROFILE
Left to Right	Stakeholders	Actions	Positions/Interests	Strengths & Weaknesses
Political	Identify groups inside or outside the community who contribute to tensions or peace. Put each stakeholder in a separate row. Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> XYZ People's Party Etc. 	What are the easily identifiable manifestations (what you see) of activities by each stakeholder to promote peace or conflict? Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Introduced Public Order Act Repress civil dissent 	What is the official position of the stakeholders – the public face they show about their motives? What are their vested interests and what do they really want? Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Position: promote peace & security, to appear governing for the people Interest: to stay in power, to reduce international & public pressure 	Assess which groups have (or don't have): significant numbers, support from their constituency, financial resources, etc. See above Example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengths: military power, support of privileged elites, control natural resources to finance power, support from businesses to generate income Weaknesses: growing dissatisfaction of populace, international pressure for reform
Economic	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ABC Trade Union Etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hold worker's demonstrations Organise labour strikes against racially-limited employment 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Position: seek employment equity Interests: same 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengths: moral authority, legitimacy, representative, int'l allies Weaknesses: few financial resources, no military might
Social	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> XYZ newspaper Etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Prints a national newspaper favourable to govt. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Position: to publish the news Interests: to remain in favour and promote govt. agenda 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengths: financial resources, legal authority, freedom to operate Weaknesses: biased reporting, lack of legitimacy, no moral authority
Security	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ABC Dissident Faction Etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Hold public demonstrations Promote civil unrest 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Position: to overthrow Government Interest: respect for human rights, freedom of association and right to practice religion 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengths: access to weapons, financing, support of disenfranchised population, legitimacy in community, support of international HR orgs Weaknesses: growing conflict-fatigue, no power to win militarily
Reg'l / Int'l	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> XYZ Foreign multinational company Etc. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Invest in major infrastructure for natural resource extraction 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Position: to operate a profitable business in collaboration with Govt. Interest: to maintain profitability with minimal costs for social responsibility 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Strengths: financial resources, legal authority to operate, international allies Weaknesses: lack of legitimacy amongst populace, infrastructure vulnerable to vandalism

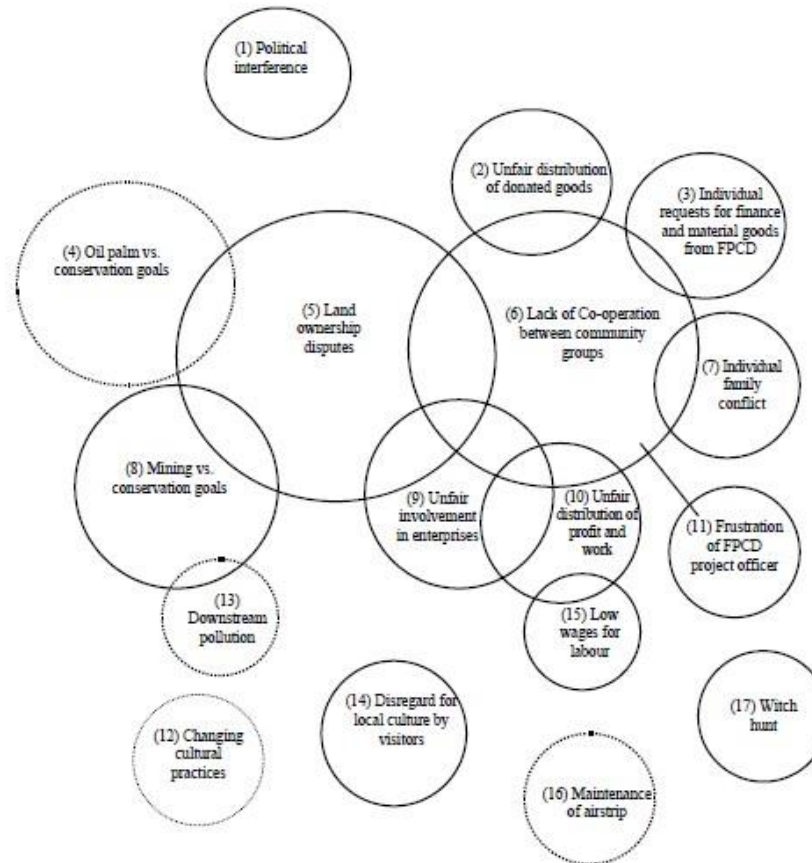

Credit:
GIZ

Conflict Mapping – Resource Dependent City

Method:

- brainstorm current and potential conflicts (potential = dotted lines);
- cluster related conflicts;
- differentiate conflicts by scale (represented by size of circle);
- compile Venn diagram with inter-related conflicts overlapping.

The Evolution of Cooperation

What does research suggest are the key determinants of cooperation?

- Long time horizons for agreements
- Regularity of Stakes
- Reliability of Information about the others' actions
- Quick feedback about changes in the others actions

(Robert Axelrod)

Sustainable Consensus

- Promoting environmentally viable outcomes in terms of planning criteria
- Being able to maintain a cooperative bond among potentially adversarial parties
- The use of the word “sustainable” to describe this process implies that there is a self-correcting mechanism built into a contract. Whenever there is a proclivity for violation of a contract, the environmental basis for the cooperation prevents the party from going forward with that violation because there is mutual aversion of environmental harm.